

Contract manager

POL-DRÓG Capital Group is a company organised and managed on the sole basis of Polish capital, and providing comprehensive and integrated services in the road construction and bridge construction sector.

The POL-DRÓG Capital Group companies supply numerous products and services. They offer a full range of construction, engineering and design services and are involved in the production of mineral and bituminous mixtures. They also conduct mining operations in the area of aggregate exploitation, providing aggregate for the Group's own companies and external end users. The Group also carries out research and development with the field of new technology implementation.

We are currently seeking individuals for the position: Contract Manager

Job Location: Commonwealth of Independent States Countries, Lithuania and Bulgaria

Responsibilities:

Conducting / overseeing the project of civil engineering

Requirements:

- Higher technical education – preferably obtained in Russian speaking countries
- Fluency in Russian
- Professional experience as a contract engineer / resident engineer / inspector - min. 5 years (including at least one contract for the roads in CIS)
- Experience in FIDIC or NEC / ECC
- Availability and flexibility

We offer:

- Competitive salary
- Career advancement opportunities
- Work on interesting projects

Interested? We are looking forward to receiving your application, your salary requirements and your earliest possible start date, preferably by email to: tnietubyc@poldrog.pl

Please be advised that we contact only selected candidates.

Capital Group POL-DROG Sp. z o.o.
Kłębowiec 90, 78-600 Wałcz